Painchaud Performance Group announces new HR Concierge Services

WINNIPEG, Manitoba – Winnipeg-based Painchaud Performance Group (PPG) is expanding to offer a suite of human-resource concierge services for small- to medium-sized businesses to help them reduce costs, improve workplace processes, and increase staff effectiveness. PPG will begin offering these services today under the name “HR Concierge Services.”

“HR Concierge Services fulfills the overwhelming need of employers who don’t have an in-house HR staff, or who need help with providing additional HR services,” says Michelle Painchaud, president and owner of PPG. “We can provide advice, guidance, and hands-on help to solve a variety of HR issues for businesses, including recruitment, selection, and retention.”

PPG’s HR Concierge Services also include: employee retention programs, performance evaluations, employee and management training and development, workforce engagement services, mentorship and coaching, and employee manual and newsletter writing and production.

“With a critical labor shortage looming in Canada, human capital is at a premium,” says Painchaud. “We can help businesses create a corporate culture that attracts and keeps people, reducing costs, improving processes, and increasing employee effectiveness.”

Painchaud Performance Group is an international consulting firm. With clients around the world, PPG is fast becoming Canada’s leader in human performance and employee engagement, growth, and retention.
